

DANE BOWLING

DIRECTOR/WRITER/ONE MAN PRODUCTION TEAM

ABOUT DANE

With a sharp eye and sharper wit, award winning director-cinematographer-writer (and everything else) Dane Bowling has worked with World of Wonder, Yahoo, MTV, Bravo, Lifetime, as well as directing features, shorts, music videos, web series, sketch, pilots, branded content and so much more.

Praised for his quick turnaround time and an inimitable aesthetic, he is a one man production team operating under the credence: "Make it fast, cheap, good" and accepts nothing less.

With a taste for kitsch, his vision adds a polish and a kinetic energy to create a style that is uniquely his. His masterful grasp of technique allows him to subvert all the rules of film making, making him an iconoclast to watch
